Total Joint Expectations Presentaion

Dr. Matthew Austin is an orthopedic surgeon specializing in hip and knee replacement. He enjoys spending time with patients in the office so that they better understand the options available to them and their path back to a healthy lifestyle. Utilizing advanced surgical techniques coupled with optimized pain management, most of Dr. Austin's patients are able to return home the same day after having hip or knee replacement surgery. Dr. Austin's clinical interests include total hip replacement (anterior approach), partial & total knee placement, robotic assisted joint replacement and rapid recovery joint replacement.

Starts: Feb 10, 2026 - Expires: Feb 10, 2026
